Visalia Livestock Market Roundup
Wednesday, December 16, 2009
Cattle Saleable: 1174

The market this week was showing signs of good improvement. There was a big run of light turn-out cattle and they were met with excellent demand as the timely rain has most stockers excited. We are seeing the better quality, especially with a good shot program and a wean, outsell the rest by a big margin. Producers that are using all tools available are seeing good payoffs. Feeder cattle in a modest run called steady to slightly lower. Butcher cows selling very well up towards their highs topping at $54 on the best ones. Bred cows and pairs in a good run mostly on middle aged kind called steady with improving demand.
...see you at ringside, Randy

Our Western and sticky calendars are here! They are going fast so please stop by our office to get one or give us a call and we will send one to you.
