From the auction block:
 The market this week finished steady with last week on a slightly lesser quality offering. Turn out cattle making up most of the run and showing most of the demand selling fully steady. Feeder cattle in a light run selling off $1-3 lower as the fats are taking some hits. Butcher cows also slightly lower off $1-2 after noting some good gains the past couple of weeks. Bred cows and pairs showing increased demand. Don't forget the value added programs available to add value to your product. Call Beth or myself to discuss your options.
 ... See you at ringside, Randy
