The market over the past 30 days has been in a significant up trend. We have watched the Futures market climb back to within $15-$20 of the all-time highs that were reached back in October. This uptrend has spilled over into the cash feeder market in a big way, with most all classes climbing to new all-time highs over the past month or two. Light grass weight cattle have benefited the most with the outstanding grass in California and the mindset of most spring grass stocker operators that there will not be any available come that time. It looks at times that there is no top on the grass weight cattle as they seem to just bring more each week. Feeder weight cattle also in somewhat of an up trend as many feedlot operators are eager to fill empty pens, especially the last couple weeks of 2025. This market has calmed down just slightly over the past few weeks, but still at the upper end of the range on the high-quality yearling kind. Butcher cows and bulls did see a slight break briefly, then turned around and went right back to the upper end of the recent range this past month. Bred cows and pairs of any quality are selling extremely well and in high demand from all parts of the country. It has been a lighter offering over the past couple weeks here at VLM, but the local and northwest buyers have been very aggressive on most all weight classes of higher quality cattle. There is extreme demand for livestock at this time and it looks to be that way into the foreseeable future. We look for this spring marketing season to set new all-time highs for that marketing period. The beef industry is certainly experiencing some exciting times!

Note: Value added vaccination programs will be at premium in this high market. Don't miss the mark and be on top of what the industry wants. If you're going to put in the work and time, please be sure that you are covering all the bases with the proper vaccines. If you have questions as to what is important when it comes to all the multiple choices of vaccine, please don't hesitate to call. Also proper documentation is important and will help us get you all the value for your efforts.
